"District Details" ... a few notes from Superintendent Elwood

Legislators Still Delaying Decisions on Key Education Issues ....

As the 2015 legislative session carries on in Des Moines, legislators continue to delay making decisions pertaining to key education issues. Unfortunately, their delay is causing issues at the local level for most school districts across the State. The two key decisions which school districts are waiting upon pertain to setting State Supplemental Assistance (SSA), the amount of new money each school will receive for next school year, and setting the school start date so that 2015-16 school calendars can be finalized.

School start date still waiting for legislature's decision.

Special points of interest:

- ✓ Treynor continues to wait on legislators to make decisions which impact school budgets and calendars.
- ✓ Charles Lakin Outstanding Teacher Award nominations are now open on the KMA website.
- ✓ Kindergarten Roundup is coming on April 17th.
- ✓ Bloodmobile will be held here on March 16.
- ✓ Attend Elementary Night of the Arts on March 6th!

Per Iowa Code, legislators should have set the SSA amount last year so that school districts have a full year to develop budgets and plans. However, the legislative leaders elected to not follow the State Code and delayed making a decision until this session. They promised school districts that the SSA would be set within the first 30 days of the current legislative session, exactly one year later than required by code. However, the 30 days have come and gone this year and school districts are still waiting on legislators to set SSA.

At the local level, we are attempting to have contract negotiations and finalize our school district budgets for next school year. School budgets must be certified by April 15. School districts are not allowed to ignore the Iowa Code as legislators have been doing; therefore, schools are placed in a tough position as we try to make staffing and budget plans without the legislators making key funding decisions so that our budgets can be set.

Unfortunately, the 2015-16 Treynor school calendar is in the same holding pattern and will not be set until the legislature makes a decision pertaining to school start dates.

At Treynor, after years of tweaking our calendar and determining what works for the majority of our local families, we traditionally start around mid-August and dismiss prior to Memorial Day. For the 2015-16 school year, if we follow our traditional calendar, school will begin around August 20 and dismiss around May 20. However, if required by the State to begin per Iowa Code, it is likely we will begin around September 1 and dismiss about June 3.

The current issue in front of legislators is who is best positioned to make decisions about the school start date? Should your local school start date be set by a district's local Board of Education or should it be regulated by the Governor and/or those promoting the Iowa State Fair?

Legislators continue to drag their feet with making decisions about school issues and these delayed decisions are impacting our local schools.

LEGISLATORS DELAY DECISIONS

Please make an effort to contact the legislators which represent Treynor School District (listed below). Make them aware that their lack of adhering to deadlines established in the Iowa Code and putting off decisions pertaining to education issues is delaying the planning and budgeting process at the local level.

Representative Greg Forristall	Greg.Forristall@legis.iowa.gov
Senator Tom Shipley	Tom.Shipley@legis.iowa.gov

Thanks for your continued support of our students, staff and programs.

Go Cardinals!

Mr. Elwood

CAUTION: Changes in weather arriving soon...

As the weather begins to change, school cancellations and early dismissals can occur at anytime. If severe weather causes school to be cancelled prior to the start of the day, we will try to have information to the media by 6:30 a.m. In addition to our school website, the media outlets that will carry our announcements this year are: KMA, WOWT, KMTV and KETV.

If weather or unforeseen circumstances (loss of power or water) should occur during the day and school is dismissed early, PLEASE HAVE A PLAN IN PLACE WITH YOUR CHILD. When early dismissals occur during the day, we usually have limited time to get information out and many parents aren't aware that an early out has taken place. Also, we have over 750 students in the district and only a couple of phone lines in each building. Don't assume that your child will be able to call you if a decision is made to dismiss school during the regular day. Have a plan in place! The elementary has forms for each parent to keep updated outlining your family's specific plan to deal with this type of situation. Parents of middle school and high school students need to discuss with their child what plan of action they will take in the event of an early dismissal during the school day. Proper planning now will provide assurance to you and your child that all will be okay should we ever have an unforeseen early dismissal.

A new Parent Notification system has been purchased to allow Treynor school officials to communicate school cancellations, early dismissals, emergency information, activity schedule changes and general notices or announcements to parents in a timely and efficient manner. Parents have the ability to sign up and select multiple methods for receiving notifications from the school (direct phone calls with recorded voice messages, text messages, emails, text-to-speech, TTY, Facebook, Twitter and RSS). Check the website for updates regarding this new service and sign up on the webpage by clicking on "Quick Links" and then "Notifications".

LAKIN OUTSTANDING TEACHER AWARD

The nomination period for the Charles Lakin Outstanding Teacher Awards is now open. This award has been presented to two area teachers for the last seven years. Nominations can be made online via the KMA website at: <http://kmaclosings.connections.net/lakin.asp>

The nomination period closes March 31st. Teachers from smaller southwest Iowa schools are eligible for the award. The award is to recognize teachers who "motivate kids to come to school each day" and see teaching as a calling, rather than a job.

Nominate a deserving teacher for this great honor and award!

Iowa Assessment testing begins on March 23rd!

In a few short weeks, we will be taking our annual spring tests. Starting on Monday, March 23, our middle school students will be taking the Iowa Assessments. The students will test at the beginning of each day that week. The results have been used several ways, including the following:

- √ Helps the school determine any subject areas or concepts that may need more teaching emphasis.
- √ Scores for schools throughout Iowa are posted on the Department of Education’s website and families moving into the area compare school’s test scores when deciding which school to enroll their children.
- √ A student’s individual scores help determine if he/she is making appropriate academic progress or may need additional academic support.
- √ Taking the tests prepares students to take other standardized tests, including college entrance exams such as the ACT.
- √ Test results help determine if the school has met Annual Yearly Progress goals set by the state.

Please try to make sure that your child is getting plenty of rest and eating a nutritious breakfast before heading off to school each day so they are at their best for testing.

On a different note, if you have not looked into all of the academic and athletic social media links that our district currently has to offer, you may want to do so and sign up to receive information. All of this information can be found on the district website at www.treynorschools.org. Go to the district tab and then social media to see what is out there on facebook and/or twitter.

As always, call or email anytime you have questions or concerns.

THOUGHTS FROM THE HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL..... MR. NAVARA

Spring fever has hit the student body; unfortunately, old man winter hasn't figured that out yet. Students are gearing up for scheduling classes for the next school year, spring sports season is underway and the senior class is ready to graduate, which I think hit them at the beginning of the school year. Within the high school, we still have a lot to do, starting with taking the Iowa Assessments. On Monday, March 23 through Friday, March 27, grades 9-11 will be racking their brains to show off their superior knowledge on these tests. The results from the Iowa Assessments will be used in several ways, including:

- Help determine subject areas or concepts that may need more teaching emphasis.
- Help determine if individual academic progress is being made, or if additional support is needed for an individual.
- Help prepare students to take other standardized tests, including college entrance exams, such as the ACT or SAT.
- Help determine if the school has met their Annual Yearly Progress goals set by the state of Iowa.
- Help attract families to Treynor High School. The Iowa Department of Education posts scores from every school on their website, and families moving into the area compare schools' test scores when deciding in which school to enroll their children.

Other items to complete includes CPR training for seniors. All students are required to have taken CPR training before they can graduate, according to state regulations pertaining to the "Healthy Kids Act". Your child will need to pay $5.00 if they would like to receive a certification card after successfully completing their training. The training will be Wednesday, March 25th. Spring semester parent-teacher conferences will be held on Tuesday, March 17 and Thursday, March 19 from 4:00—8:00 p.m. Teachers will be in their rooms eagerly waiting your arrival.

KINDERGARTEN ROUNDUP

If you have a student who will be in Kindergarten next fall, please plan to attend Kindergarten Roundup on Friday, April 17th. If you don't have a child currently in school, please call the elementary office to make sure that your upcoming child is on our list. An informational letter will be sent out in mid-March. Please let us know if you are planning to send your child to Kindergarten and do not receive a letter. If you have questions, please contact Mr. Larsen, Elementary Principal, 712-487-3422.

CITY WIDE GARAGE SALE

Hurry...the deadline to register is Friday, April 10th!!!

Advertising will be purchased from the Daily Nonpareil and Gazette. Additional flyers advertising the event will be posted in surrounding area businesses and school newsletters. Cost to participate in the city wide sale is $5.00. This fee helps to offset the advertising and printing costs JTW will incur to promote the city wide sale. Payments can be mailed to Junior Treynor Women, c/o Jennifer Phelps, 15140 Hearthstone Dr., Council Bluffs, IA 51503.

Visitors will be instructed to pick up a map at local area businesses the week of the sale. This map will give local garage sale addresses, day/hours open and list any items you wish to advertise.

This year, the Junior Treynor Women are teaming up with TS Bank and their Suitcase for Kids drive. Please consider donating any suitcases, bags or totes to be donated to Children's Square to be given to foster children. As kids transfer from house to house, they often have nothing besides a garbage bag to hold their belongings. There will be more details given later on where to donate your bags.

SAVE A LIFE—GIVE BLOOD!

Take time to save a life! There's an opportunity waiting for you at the blood drive on Monday, March 16th. The blood drive will be held in the east gym of the high school from 8:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. To make an appointment, call Marcia Lippert at 487-3422 from 8:00—3:00 any weekday.

Cardinal Financial Literacy Update

HOW TO RAISE AN INVESTOR

A Financial Pro Shares His Tips

Even though it may not be the easiest lesson to teach, helping children learn the value of money is an important life lesson. Especially at a young age when they don't have any prior context of what money is worth and how it is used to get on the path to financial freedom.

Regardless of your children's age, there are some basic things that financial professionals agree upon. Brent Hoskins, Regional Investor Center Manager for American Century Investments, provides some tips he often shares with his clients and his children.

Begin early. Earlier is better when it comes to teaching children the basics about money and saving. Once children are able to count - typically around the age of 5 or 6 - they can start to grasp the concept of money and the idea of instant gratification versus the potential rewards of delayed gratification.

Help them start their own savings plan. Whether at a bank or at home, it's beneficial to encourage children to save their money. "Saving" doesn't have to mean "never spending." Many parents will give their children the option to save some, spend some and gift some. For example, in Brent's case, he and his wife let their twin children pick out their own piggy banks. Each bank has three different compartments that the kids use to divide their money into "savings", "spending" and "giving". This not only helps children get into the habit of regularly dividing their money it's a great visual reinforcement of how their money is adding up!

Teach by example. Brent emphasizes that, when it comes to developing spending and saving habits, children tend to follow in their parents' footsteps. So it's tremendously important that you model the financial behavior you'd like your kids to follow. Today, whether you tried to or not, you probably taught your children something about money. You taught them by your actions, attitude and responses.

Help children understand what it means to work for an income. Brent's children understand that it is their responsibility to make their beds, do the dishes and help out in other basic ways around the house. For many families, completing these types of responsibilities can lead to special treats, rewards or an allowance. Brent also explains to his children that - as they grow - there will be extra household jobs they can do to earn money. By making a connection between work and reward, children can begin to understand the value and importance of having a job and doing it well.

Start small. Too often people think they have to have a sizeable amount of money accumulated before they can invest. Brent encourages people not to wait. Regardless of the starting amount, it can be beneficial to invest consistently and continually over time.

Talk about college expenses when the kids are young. Brent strongly urges clients to not wait until their kids are teenagers before they address upcoming college expenses. Parents need to decide what portion or percentage of their children's college costs they plan to cover and how much they will expect their children to pay. That will help children learn, from a young age, how much they'll need to save over the coming years. By establishing that criteria early - and discussing it regularly - there won't be any big surprises or disappointments when your teens are graduating from high school.
