Snow Day Update

As of February 26, we have missed 4 full days of school and encountered 1 late start. The school calendar includes three days built in for weather, state tournament days, etc. for students. At this point in time, students will need to make up 1 day plus any additional days that may be missed. Keep your fingers crossed for good weather! If no additional days are missed, the last day of school for students is projected to be May 31.

Treynor faculty and staff are scheduled to make up all days missed. Currently, the last day of work for faculty and staff is projected to be June 3.

Teacher Leadership & Compensation (TLC) Update.....

The Teacher Leadership and Compensation (TLC) System rewards effective teachers with leadership opportunities and higher pay, attracts promising new teachers with competitive starting salaries and more support, and fosters greater collaboration for all teachers to learn from each other.

The overriding philosophy of the system is multi-pronged, but boils down to this: Improving student learning requires improving the instruction they receive each day. There is no better way to do this than to empower our best teachers to lead the effort.

Through the system, teacher leaders take on extra responsibilities, including helping colleagues analyze data and fine tune instructional strategies as well as coaching and co-teaching.

The goals of the Teacher Leadership and Compensation System are:

- Attract able and promising new teachers by offering competitive starting salaries and offering short-term and long-term professional development and leadership opportunities.

TLC UPDATE CONT'D

- Retain effective teachers by providing enhanced career opportunities.
- Promote collaboration by developing and supporting opportunities for teachers in schools and school districts statewide to learn from each other.
- Reward professional growth and effective teaching by providing pathways for career opportunities that come with increased leadership responsibilities and involve increased compensation.
- Improve student achievement by strengthening instruction.

Treynor CSD has received approval from the Department of Education to participate in the TLC program starting in the 2016-17 school year. A TLC plan was developed that involves 18 teachers fulfilling the roles of: TLC coordinator, instructional coach, model teacher, mentor teacher and district leadership team member.

The TLC coordinator and two instructional coach positions will be 100% out of the classroom teacher leadership jobs created to help achieve the goals identified above. At the February school board meeting, a contract was approved for Kara Huisman to fulfill the role of TLC coordinator and contracts were issued to Heidi Finnegan and Mary Bleth-Harris to fulfill the Instructional coach positions.

Applications are currently being accepted for the model teacher, mentor teacher and district leadership team positions. If interested in more information about the TLC program, check out the 'TLC page' on the school website.

Thanks for your continued support of our students, staff and programs.

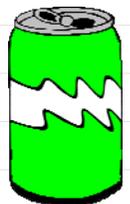

Go Cardinals!

JOOI CLUB CAN KENNEL FOR MARCH

The JOOI Club, the high school Optimist service organization, will receive the can kennel funds for the month of March. Please consider donating cans and bottles containing the one cent deposit. This is the largest income for the club during the year. Club funds are used to help with local food bank purchases, shoes for Uganda youngsters, food to be sacked for meals in undeveloped countries, help for a local family and for two $100 scholarships.

In the past, the club has also cleaned the school grounds and parks, painted the restrooms at the East Park and helped plant trees on school property. The members have also assisted the Optimist Club with some of their projects.

WINNERS IN OPTIMIST ESSAY CONTEST

Rachel Mejstrik, Nathan Hill and Emma Myers earned the top three honors in the Optimist International essay contest at Treynor High School. All students in the three sections of Mrs. Coughlin's writing classes entered the contest. The topic which is determined by Optimist International was "Lead by Example: Reality or Fiction". The original student essays had to have at least 700 words, but no more than 800. The individual compositions were only identified by a student number and the best entries were judged by a former retired writing teacher outside the Treynor area. First, second and third medals with lanyards were awarded to the winners along with a certificate. Rachel Mejstrik's first place essay is being entered in the Iowa Optimist District contest where the writer of the best essay will be awarded a $2,500 scholarship. The winner of that state-wide contest will read his or her essay at the Optimist District Convention in May in Des Moines.

THOUGHTS FROM THE HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL.....

MR. McNEAL

The month of February was a very productive month for the students and staff at the high school. We continue to excel in a wide range of extra-curricular activities. Here is a list of those activities:

The Jazz Band and Jazz Choir both earned 1st place at WIC Jazz Festival with Wynn Keller receiving an outstanding solo award.

The Jazz Band received a Division I Superior rating at State Jazz Festival and finished 1st at the District competition in Audubon which qualifies them for the Iowa Jazz Championships.

The Jazz Choir recently performed at the Morningside Jazz Festival and the results haven't been released at this point.

Zach Mass participated in a student panel discussion explaining technology and broadband viewpoints. The student panel discussion took place to better understand broadband related topics from Iowa's next generation. Zach is a member of Iowa Communications Network's Statewide Youth Broadband Advisory Council.

Nathan Hill, Madison Weber, Shelby Thoms, Cassie Copperstone, Meaghan Cox, Taren Vacanti, Ellen Campbell and Celina Main had their art work selected to be displayed in the Youth Art Month Show in Des Moines during the month of March. Celina's piece was also selected as the High School Sargent Art Winner.

The Speech team qualified 11 out of 16 performances to State competition with the following students selected to perform at the IHSSA All State Festival:

Group Improvisation: Michael Guidry, Taylor Anderson, Grant Mantell and McKayla Olsen

Group Improvisation: Taren Vacanti, Emily Owens, Emily Sutherland, Morgan Showalter and Kyla Mittan

Short Film: Tyler Radcliff, Griffen Kline, Kalee Cross, Bailey Andersen, and Aly Anderson

The following students were named Scholastic Writing Award winners: Jade Wilson-Buchholz (Fiction/Fantasy) and Sydney Schnepel (Poetry) were awarded the Gold Key which is awarded to the top 5-7% of all entries.

Jade Wilson-Buchholz (Flash Fiction), Sydney Schnepel (Senior Writing Portfolio), Megan Lutz (Flash Fiction and Senior Writing Portfolio), Emily Sutherland (Short Story and Personal Essay/Memoir) and Mitchell Griffin (Science Fiction/Fantasy) were awarded Honorable Mention which was awarded to the top 10-15% of all entries.

The Iowa Scholastic Art & Writing Awards ceremony will be held on Saturday, March 26 beginning at noon on the University of Iowa campus.

Steven and Sam Gregory qualified to wrestle at the State meet with Steven finishing in 4th place.

The girls basketball team finished 21-2 and are the WIC champions.

The boys basketball team is Co-WIC champions and are presently 21-2. They will play for a State tournament berth at Harlan on Saturday, February 27 against Carroll Kuemper.

The Junior Optimists collected 15 boxes of non-perishable food items and paper products for donation to the Treynor Community Food Pantry.

Rachel Mejstrik, Nathan Hill and Emma Myers are the top 3 Optimist Club essay contest winners. Rachel's essay will be entered in the Iowa Optimist district contest for a possible prize of a $2,500 scholarship. The essay topic was "Lead by Example: Reality or Fiction".

In closing, I would like to remind everyone that the third 9 weeks ends on March 18. Parent-Teacher Conferences will be held from 4:00—8:00 on March 22 and 24. We will not have school on March 25-30.

Make School Dances Affordable

Throughout the school year, many schools sponsor dances. Over the years, the cost to attend these events has risen as teens, and sometimes their parents, often seek to create the perfect once-in-a-lifetime experience. According to Visa, during the 2013 prom season, teens and their parents spent an average of $1,139 for this end-of-school-year event, ranging from $722 in the Midwest to $1,528 in the Northeast. Typically, teens pay 40% of the costs with parents picking up the balance, Visa reported. To help control these expenses, talk with your son or daughter and help them create a spending plan for the event. Encourage them to stick with the plan and together find ways to create a great experience without spending a great amount of money.

Tickets - Is your student involved in student council or pep club? Some schools offer complimentary passes or a discounted price for tickets to the dance to students who volunteer on the organizing committee or help decorate prior to the dance.

Clothes - To save on the cost of a gown or suit, party-goers might consider shopping at consignment stores or thrift shops, which often feature a section of like-new dresses, suits and tuxes. An older sibling may also have an appropriate dress or suit that can be handed down. Rather than buy new, this is also a great opportunity to explore rental options.

Grooming - Girls can save money by doing their own hair and nails or enlisting a girlfriend's help. Often times, the major retail hair cutters offer deep discounts during these times of year to encourage students to visit their shop.

Flowers - Encourage your teen to share the expense of flowers with others. When asked, some florists will provide a group discount. If you know someone who's handy with arts and crafts, perhaps they can make the corsages and boutonnieres for considerably less.

Transportation - While it may be fun to ride in a limo, it's also expensive. Several couples sharing a ride can split the cost. Or, better yet, shine up the daily driver and use it to get from point-to-point.

Food - A special event calls for a special meal. But, that doesn't mean it has to be at the most expensive place in town. Look for fun, low-cost, dining options that are out of the ordinary. For example, a quaint café or diner that's off the beaten path can make for a memorable night out. For even greater savings, why not consider hosting the pre-dance meal at your home with some other parents for your teen and their friends? Invite each couple to be responsible for part of the menu.

Rather than discovering ways to spend the most amount of money, look for ways to have the most amount of fun. Grant Neuer, a 2013 high school graduate in Stilwell, Kansas, coordinated with his date to find ways to economize on both homecoming and senior prom.

"To save money they ordered their flowers from a supermarket, and they went dutch to a buffet restaurant after calling to check prices," says Grant's mom Melissa Neuer. To pay for his tux, he worked extra weekend hours at his restaurant job bussing tables. He and his date worked together to keep the costs down. Her dad served as their chauffeur and her uncle was the pre-dance photographer.

"They had just as much fun on their dates as if they'd spent a lot more," Melissa noted.
